A Month of Milestones: Welcome to October!

Celebration of Our Roots October holds a profoundly special place in the history of the Vikrant Group of Institutions.

* Founders' Day and Chairperson's Birthday: We begin by honoring the vision and dedication that created this campus. This month marks both the esteemed Founders' Day and the birthday of our beloved Chairperson. Their leadership continues to inspire every aspect of our academic and professional growth, setting the standard for excellence that you will now carry forward. Even more crucially, we commemorate the very cornerstone of our legacy. October 8th, 2007, marks the day the foundation of the Vikrant Group of Institutions was officially laid. For nearly two decades, this institution has been built on a promise of quality education and transformative impact. A Month of Milestones: Welcome to October!

October also perfectly mirrors the journey you are embarking on: The VGI, Indore officially welcome the newest cohort of first-year Pharmacy students to the Vikrant family, October is not just the start of autumn; here at Vikrant, it is a month bursting with celebration, Foundation Day, and new beginnings.  Induction and Potential: For you, our bright new Pharmacy students, October signifies your official induction—the beginning of your professional life and the transition into becoming future healthcare leaders. We see immense potential in each one of you.

A Month of Festivals: Beyond the academic calendar, October is illuminated by a spirit of joy, unity, and celebration, often bringing with it a beautiful array of festivals. This reminds us of the importance of community and finding light and renewal, themes we hope define your time here.

TRIUMPH AND TENACITY: VINS Students Achieve Stellar 90% Result in Two-Year Exam!

01 OCTOBER 2025

NUKKAD NATAK IGNITES CAMPUS CLEANLINESS .

30th & 31st OCTOBER 2025

The Cultural Club and Literature Club collaborated to organize an impactful Nukkad Natak (Street Play) at the Assembly Point, aiming to spread vital messages about cleanliness, hygiene, and the importance of collective responsibility. The performance served as a creative centerpiece for the campus-wide cleanliness effort. Unlike a typical lecture, the vibrant and engaging street play used drama, humor, and direct interaction to capture the attention of students. The script, developed by members of the Literature Club, highlighted common campus hygiene issues and showcased practical ways in which every individual could contribute to a cleaner environment. The Cultural Club's energetic delivery ensured the message resonated deeply, turning a simple clean-up drive into a memorable, communal event. "The idea behind the Nukkad Natak was to go beyond merely asking people to clean; we wanted to inspire a change in mindset, Cleanliness isn't just a one-day task; it's a collective responsibility that requires consistent effort and awareness. Art is a powerful tool to drive that change." Celebrating the Spirit of Umugand. Held at the busy Assembly Point, the performance successfully drew a large crowd, encouraging immediate discussion and commitment among the attendees. The performance concluded with a collective pledge to maintain the cleanliness and beauty of the campus. This special initiative perfectly encapsulated the true spirit of Umuganda—bringing the community together not just to work, but to celebrate creativity and foster a lasting sense of shared ownership over the campus environment. The collaboration between the two clubs is a shining example of how different segments of the campus can unite for a common, valuable cause, followed by our commitment to maintaining a clean and green campus, a Cleanliness Drive is scheduled today. All students, faculty members, and staff (teaching and non-teaching) actively participated in this important initiative.
